2 Background

The City of Casey is constituted as a municipal Council under the Local Government Act 2020. The Council is a body corporate and is required to have a common seal, used in conjunction with any local law.

These are the Governance Rules of Casey City Council. The Governance Rules are made under, and in accordance with section 60 of the Local Government Act 2020.

The proposed changes to the Rules considers the recommendations made by the Independent Broad-based Anti-corruption Commission (IBAC) in its Operation Sandon Special Report, in addition to other matters within Meeting Procedure and Election Period Policy section.

2.1 Written submissions

During the project engagement period two (2) written submissions were received. In accordance to Councils Privacy Policy, the collection of data from the submissions will be responded to individually.

2.2 Next steps

Council officers have responded directly to the authors of the written submissions, via the email addresses provided.

Council adoption is anticipated at the June 2024 Council meeting.

Commented [LN1]: Provide any mention of any making amendments to the rules here.
